

of the book, or print it out from our website, and tape it to your refrigerator or desk. Check things off, cross them out in red pen, or even use Wite-Out so that your tasks slowly disappear from the page—whatever you need to do!

Timeline	For Parents	For Students	What Chapter?
September–October, Junior Year	Complete FAFSA4caster, at Fafsa4caster.ed.gov . Have a candid discussion with your spouse or former spouse about paying for college. Start making a plan to modify your budget.	Take PSAT. Meet with high school counselor. Attend a college fair.	1, 2, 5
November–January, Junior Year	Have a family discussion about your Actual EFC.	Have a family discussion about paying for college. Start saving, get a part-time job, stash money away for college expenses. Get rid of your car?	3, 4, 5
January–March, Junior Year	Help your child search for schools, and help him or her fill out our MAP and Cost-Conscious Search charts.	Search for colleges. Complete our MAP and/or Cost-Conscious Search charts.	6, 7
April–May, Junior Year	Revisit your conversation about paying for college. Are you on track? Have you had any major changes in your financial position? Look at the net prices you calculated using our Cost-Conscious Search chart in Chapter 7. Can you still afford that?	Take SAT and/or ACT.
June–August, Summer Before Senior Year	Do some local college visits, if possible. (We recommend that you save your money and don't go on expensive visits until your child is admitted.)	Sign up for FASTWEB.	9

September, Senior Year	Put important dates on your calendar.	Take SAT and/or ACT again, or take an SAT/ACT prep course. Build a calendar of admission and scholarship deadlines.	6, 7, 9
October, Senior Year	File the FAFSA. Make sure your child is organizing his or her admission materials correctly.	File the FAFSA. Make sure you list the codes of all schools on your list. (You may list up to 10.) Attend college fairs. Use the MAP and Cost-Conscious Search charts again to narrow down your choices. Request applications, and fill them out. Update your deadline calendar.	2, 6, 7, 9
November, Senior Year	File PROFILE for Early Decision Profile schools. Read your child's essays and review his or her applications for accuracy. Send all materials U.S. mail, receipt requested to prove your child has met deadlines, if you're not using electronic applications.	File CSS PROFILE for Early Decision PROFILE schools. Retake the SAT and/or ACT. Fill out applications for admission. Check your deadline calendar. Keep copies of everything you send.	2, 8
December, Senior Year	Watch for admission and scholarship offers; many scholarship offers are sent immediately following admission.	Watch for admission and scholarship offers; many schools send them electronically via email or through a portal in their website.	10

January, Senior Year	File federal taxes	File federal taxes. Complete scholarship competitions (applications and essays and referrals if necessary). Go to scholarship events/interviews at your colleges.	2, 8
February, Senior Year	Many colleges send financial aid packages to students online. Use the charts in Chapter 10 to track your child's offers.	Watch your email for your admission letter and financial aid package. Use the charts in Chapter 10 to track your offers.	2, 8, 10
March, Senior Year	File your FAFSA immediately (many state deadlines are March 1). Immediately meet any requests for subsequent information for financial documentation.	File your FAFSA immediately (many state deadlines are March 1). Meet any requests for subsequent information for financial aid. Use the charts in Chapter 10 to track your offers.	2, 8, 10
April, Senior Year	Go to admitted student events and/or a private campus visit. Meet with financial aid officers to discuss the financial aid award. An enrollment deposit is due May 1.	Go to admitted student events and/or a private campus visit. Meet with financial aid officers to discuss the financial aid award.	10

May, Senior Year	Your enrollment deposit is due May 1. Find out the payment options for your child's school. (Many first payments are due in June.) Construct a plan to pay your share in full. Know where your money is coming from. Deposits may be refundable until May 1, so pay early to get priority for housing and registration, so if that is offered by your child's first-choice school.	Your enrollment deposit is due May 1. Don't miss the deadline. Many schools withdraw offers of admission in May when their classes are full. Go outside. Stop thinking about college.
June, Senior Year	Pick dates for summer orientation, if possible.	Sign up for summer orientation, if possible.
July, Summer Before College	Apply for Parent PLUS loan. Get your child's immunization records from your doctor. Read Letting Go by Karen Levin Coburn and Madge Lawrence Treeger.	Apply for Direct loan. Contact your roommate as soon as you get the name. Submit your immunization form.	2, 3
August, Summer Before College	Complete promissory notes. Have your child pay the bill. Take your child to college!	Complete promissory notes and electronic entrance counseling (required). Pay your bill. Enjoy move-in day, and get started!	